

2007 Keepers of the Fire Scholarship Program

Scholarship Overview

The "Keepers of the Fire Scholarship" is an annual scholarship program that awards 3 $500.00 scholarships to American Indian (Indigenous) students attending a college or university in the United States or Canada. The scholarships are given in honor of my parents, Philip L. and Esther J. Niles. My father, Philip Niles, was an enrolled tribal member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation of Oklahoma (descended from the Fox family clan) and dedicated his professional life to helping many American Indian tribes throughout the United States through his employment with the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

My father was very proud of his ancestors and heritage. Even though he is now deceased, being an enrolled member of the Citizen Potawatomi Nation of Oklahoma myself (traditional name of Wakshe – "Red Fox"), it is my way of supporting the education and capacity-building of the American Indian (Indigenous) student population.

Scholarship Requirements

1. The 3 Keepers of the Fire Scholarships will be given to 3 American Indian (Indigenous) students who are accepted into or registered at a college or university (preferably studying Social Work or American Indian Studies).
2. The scholarship is a 1-time award of $500.00. The recipients and non-awardees are encouraged to re-apply in the following year (fall 2008).
3. The nominees must be an enrolled tribal member of any American Indian (Indigenous) tribe or community in the United States or Canada.
4. Preference will be given to those who are returning to their tribe following their college graduation.
